HOUSECALL

What happens after a bad shot?

A short reset for the next stone

Learn the game. Love the game.

The shot is still in play

WHILE IT IS MOVING

Stay involved.
Keep sharing useful weight and line information.

AFTER IT STOPS

Take a moment.
Then talk about the result without blaming anyone.

There may still be a useful result to play for.

One useful fact

THE FRUSTRATED VERSION

"I cannot make anything today."

THE VERSION YOU CAN USE

"That draw finished short."

Then check the next call and agree one adjustment.

A teammate’s next words

“Want one quick detail,
or a moment?”

“I’ve got you.
What is our next job?”

Before the game, ask what kind of support each player likes.
